

UNMAS Syria Response

UNMAS

THE PROBLEMS

- Access to many areas is not possible for international partners.
- The security and political environment can make it difficult to operate without repercussions.
- Constantly shifting lines of control.
- Selection of local partners.
- Equipment issues.
- Regulatory environment of neighbouring countries.
- Perception and expectations of the local population.
- Ad hoc and unregulated activities in the absence of assistance.

OUR CURRENT SOLUTIONS

- Local capacity, not necessarily national capacity.
- Strong sub cluster team.
- Inclusivity for activities.
- Joint programming.
- Attempted buy in across the board.
- Anonymisation.
- Doing what we can now well and as safely as possible.
- Innovative approaches.
- Advocacy.
